

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Prof. Jackson B. McKinney, instructor Northwestern University, missing.

Dorothy Twyman, 13, 7435 Stewart av., and Leon Jones, 7413 Harvard av., bitten by dogs. Jones taken to Pasteur Institute.

Rev. Bernard I. Bell will speak at Grace Episcopal church forum, Sunday evening April 12. Subject: "Social Value of the Christian Doctrine of Vicarious Atonement."

Dr. Albert Stats, 54, professor of chemistry, National Medical School, 1430 Wells st., alleged to have taken $1,000 worth of valuable instruments from the institution. Arrested.

Mrs. Florence Perry wants divorce. Cruelty and non-support charged.

$5,500,000 Byron Laflin Smith estate goes to family. $100,000 bequeathed to charity.

Will of Frederick William Crosby filed. $1,000,000 estate given to relatives.

2,500-word report on school site quiz prepared. Action to be deferred until sub-committee meets again.

Raymond Harrison held in connection with suicide of Marjorie Chauncey, 18.

Home of Miss Julia Regan, 2249 Warren av., entered. $100 stuff taken.

Hundreds of patients, physicians and dentists routed by smoke at Reliance Building. Some drenched by fire hose. Little damage.

Albert B. Coombs, 542 S. Dearborn st., arrested by Pinkertons. Alleged to have passed $5,000 forged checks.

Injunction sought to restrain officials of Desplaines from continuing village improvements. Property owners charge bribery.

891 political meetings held in schoolhouses during last four weeks.

Mrs. Carrie Heffler, 3016 S. Canal st., brought John Kirkpatrick, 527 W. 28th st., into court to convince him that she was married. Man placed under peace bond for annoying woman.

George M. Seward, 5430 Cornell av., bankrupt. Liabilities, $58,013; assets, $11,145.

Loneliness and temporary insanity coroner's verdict in Pearl Conners' suicide.

Miss Dorothy Forrest, 23, 4008 Grand blvd., recovering from overdose of chloroform, denies suicide intent.

Manley Bloomgren, 3 W. Walton pl., and J. D. Phillips, Oak Park, arrested as alleged "mashers."

Ten policewomen detailed to railroad station duty.

Hugh Francis held for grand jury for using mails to defraud. Alleged to have sent fake orders to firm by whom he was employed.

Charles C. Fitzmorris, secretary to Mayor Harrison, denies forcing ball tickets on city employees.

Charles Dank, 8361 Burley av., quarreled with conductor on 12th st. car. Pushed off. Right leg broken.

Judge Newcomer placed purse on railing of Continental Trust and Commercial Savings Bank. Turned round. Purse missing.

James A. Sherman, 72, missing Civil War veteran, found in Soldiers' Home.

Three-day-old baby boy found on sidewalk of 179 W. Water st.

J. E. Ingram, attorney. Title and Trust Building, bankrupt. $66,646. No assets.

Immigration authorities may deport Louis Miller, owner of alleged dive in S. Chicago.

Albert Seizer, 1407 Solon pl., chauffeur, exonerated in death of Adam Nyka, 9, boy hit by auto truck Saturday.

One hundred girls routed when fire attacked Central Union building, 368 W. Madison st.

William Hong, 7232 S. Halsted st., Chinese laundryman, annoyed by boys. Fired several shots. Arrested.

Vida Hagen, housemaid, to see baby daughter first time in three